Split Apple is located moments away from the stunning Abel Tasman National Park on New Zealand's South Island. This beautiful boutique wellness retreat is built into a cliff face looking out to breathtaking views of secluded golden beaches and the Tasman Sea. Each of the 3 exceptionally spacious guest rooms is furnished in a modern Japanese design and features 2 private decks surrounded by fragrant gardens. The Fuji and Lotus Rooms boast 2-person granite Japanese bathtubs whilst the 2-storey Rainbow Suite has a separate lounge and bathroom with atmospheric LED lit shower. Relax and admire the views from the infinity pool and benefit from a personalised deep tissue or aromatherapy massage in the private treatment room. At the heart of any stay is the nutritionally tailored gourmet cuisine. The owner's passion for functional food that aids health and healing is reflected in the diverse menu prepared from delicious locally sourced ingredients. To ensure long-lasting effects attend a cooking lesson and book a medical consultation to attain a bespoke wellness programme.
